SET ARRANGEMENT

Life is a perpetual cycle with no beginning and no end: everything is, becomes and evolves according to its own nature. The universe does not admit of “non-existence”: everything, even if it is merely imagined, exists. “Being” means existing; “being” is manifested in perpetual motion, in dynamism, and in change, which comprise the inexorable essence of life itself. VG loves to observe the diversity of cultures and traditions, welcoming with contemporary curiosity and sensitivity this teaching from age-old Aztec and Mayan legends.

This was how the VG set arrangement was born: a corporate philosophy profoundly based on the concepts of flexibility, evolution, and growth. With the creation of truly coordinated interior décor, VG surpasses the traditional concept of furniture and develops a new mission: to offer not only high quality, top design articles, but totally unprecedented atmospheres where the lines, combinations, and materials blend harmoniously.

La vita è un ciclo continuo, che non concepisce inizio o fine: tutto è, ogni cosa diviene ed evolve per propria stessa natura. L'universo non ammette la “non esistenza”: tutto quello che possiamo anche solo immaginare, è. “Essere” significa esistere; “essere” si manifesta nel continuo movimento, nel dinamismo e nel cambiamento, che sono l'essenza imprescindibile della vita stessa. VG ama porsi in ascolto delle culture e delle tradizioni più differenti, accogliendo con interesse e sensibilità contemporanea questo insegnamento proveniente dalle più antiche leggende azteche e maya.

Nasce così VG set arrangement: una filosofia aziendale profondamente basata sui concetti di flessibilità, evoluzione e crescita. Con l'ideazione di vere e proprie ambientazioni coordinate, VG supera la tradizionale concezione dell'arredamento e sviluppa una nuova mission: proporre non solo pregiati articoli di alto design, ma atmosfere inedite in cui linee, accostamenti, colori e materiali si fondono armoniosamente.

Kukulkàn, the Plumed Serpent, is one of the most important mythic figures of Mesoamerican civilization. A hero and divinity, Kukulkàn is the legendary bearer of development that enabled the Cosmos to resume its own cycle following previous misfortunes.

Kukulkàn, il Serpente Piumato, è uno dei più importanti miti delle civiltà mesoamericane. Eroe e divinità insieme, è il leggendario apportatore di sviluppo che permise al Cosmo di riprendere il proprio ciclo dopo le precedenti sventure.

The incessant and incomparable energy of the Universe exists and vibrates in everything. Human beings have been granted an extraordinary privilege: to be both creator and creation at the same time.

L'incessante e impareggiabile energia dell'Universo esiste e vibra in ogni cosa. L'essere umano ha ricevuto in dono uno straordinario privilegio: esserne, allo stesso tempo, parte e creatore.

Kukulkàn represents the dual principle: the earth on which the serpent slithers and the sky in which birds soar unite to symbolize both the Law of Union that governs the universe and the ultimate objective of human existence.

Kukulkàn rappresenta il principio del duale: la terra in cui striscia il serpente e il cielo in cui volano gli uccelli si riuniscono in un'unica simbologia per raffigurare la legge di Unità con cui opera l'universo e l'obiettivo ultimo dell'esistenza umana.

The Serpent is the symbol par excellence of the circle of life: with its seasonal metamorphosis, it represents the continuous evolution of all things, the inexorable path from birth to death, and on towards a new life.

Il Serpente è il simbolo per eccellenza della ciclicità dell'esistenza: con la sua metamorfosi stagionale, rappresenta l'evoluzione continua di tutte le cose, l'incessante percorso dalla vita alla morte e ancora verso una nuova vita.

Air is par excellence the dimension of dreams, where what in known reality we call illusion instead manifests itself as a potential truth. Indeed, the intangible essence of dream is where ancestral energies that govern the power of change and the overwhelming creativity of evolution are renewed.

L'aria è la dimensione onirica per eccellenza, dove ciò che nella realtà conosciuta chiamiamo illusione si manifesta invece come una verità possibile. E proprio nell'intangibile essenza del sogno si rinnovano le energie ancestrali che governano il potere del cambiamento e la dirompente creatività dell'evoluzione.

The Plumed Serpent is also the emblem and bearer of Light, or the supreme knowledge that will allow men to achieve union with the One and know that infinite continuity which is life itself.

Il Serpente Piumato è allo stesso tempo emblema e portatore di Luce, ossia della consapevolezza suprema che consentirà agli uomini di compiere la congiunzione con l'Uno e di sperimentare quell'infinita continuità che è la vita.

MARBLE

The serpent is the symbol of ancestral energies that govern the life force, the drive to change, and the power of transformation. An innate and absolute instinct found in man, in nature, and even in the elements that we often perceive to be unchangeable like marble, with its solid and almost indestructible exterior that conceals an inner soul that is in continuous movement. A simple message, and for this very reason even more surprising, that the oldest civilizations have left to us: the creator that we call the Universe and that is a part of everything is man himself. And we ourselves create in every instant through our constant changes.

Il serpente è il simbolo delle energie ancestrali che governano la forza vitale, lo slancio al mutamento e il potere della trasformazione. Un istinto innato e imprescindibile che si manifesta nell'uomo, nella natura e anche negli elementi che spesso ci appaiono immutabili come il marmo, la cui esteriorità solida e quasi indistruttibile cela un'anima in continuo movimento. Un messaggio semplice e per questo ancora più sorprendente, che i popoli più antichi ci hanno lasciato: lo spirito creatore, che chiamiamo Universo ed è parte di ogni cosa, è l'uomo stesso. E noi stessi creiamo in ogni istante attraverso i nostri continui cambiamenti.
